

The Star

Bob Brenneman

1. In their search for life's deep meaning, A new star appeared one day. As the wise men pondered this thing, the result caused them to say, "It is heaven-ly, this shin-ing, It's from God this is for sure! O per-haps the age is chang-ing, A new king is born this year. It's a star a heav'-ly star. It's a star the morn-ing star. He's lead-ing me He's near not far, As I fol-low this star.

2. O this star a distant vision,
But so clear, it's shining there.
To pursue, is my decision,
I must seek, to bring it near.
You must follow in the church life,
With this vision bright and clear.
Pay a price to gain this vision,
It will lead you closer, near.

3. As we seek the Christ, our shining,
Becomes brighter, it is clear.
We enjoy Christ by pursuing Ever drawing closer, near.

(3. Continued)
As we're filled up with His glory,
Causing us to Him adore.
We become His testimony
We express Him more and more.

4. As the Lord walks midst the churches,
Seven stars in His right hand,
They are ones for whom He searches,
Messengers with Him to stand!
They are shepherds, operators,
They are overcomers too.
They are also life dispensers,
Sharing Christ, the one pursued.
